Work Experience

CEO/Managing Director – A I Cherry, Chartered Forensic Accountants, 1988 to the present.

After qualifying as a Chartered Accountant (ICAEW) with Spicer & Pegler (now Deloitte) Mr Cherry worked in a managerial capacity with Price Waterhouse (Kenya), Commonwealth Development Corporation (Tanzania, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu) and KPMG.

Formerly Senior Manager responsible for the North West forensic accounting department of KPMG, Mr Cherry formed one of the first practices specialising in forensic accounting in 1988.

Mr Cherry has acted as an Expert Witness in several thousand cases involving forensic accounting.

Mr Cherry has been instructed by both claimant and defendant solicitors to advise the Court on claims for loss of profits and other matters as a Forensic Accountant Expert Witness. He has been instructed as a Joint Expert on many occasions. In addition, he has been instructed by The Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority to advise on quantum of loss of earnings in criminal cases.

He has given evidence in the Royal Courts of Justice on several occasions, together with many appearances in County Court, Crown Court and before employment and other tribunals.

Mr Cherry is a qualified arbitrator and a panel member of the President's referral scheme of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. He has carried out appointments and many referrals.

He has prepared reports on quantum in cases of personal injury, fatal accidents, medical negligence, professional negligence, matrimonial disputes, commercial matters, company valuation disputes, fraud cases, money laundering and Proceeds of Crime Act applications.

Mr Cherry advised in the case of Kelly -v- Dawes, the first structured settlement achieved in this country. He has advised in other cases involving structured settlements.

Mr Cherry has appeared on radio and television commenting on forensic accounting matters and corporate fraud. He has written articles which have been published in specialised legal papers, accountancy magazines and press and was consultant editor on a reference book written for forensic accounting practitioners. He has lectured on forensic accounting and fraud to fellow practitioners, solicitors and insurers and given presentations to lawyers and specialist groups of legal practitioners.

In addition to his Forensic work, Mr Cherry is a registered auditor and has a commercial practice as a Chartered Accountant carrying out accountancy, tax and audit work for a range of clients.
