Service Level Agreement

I will:

1. Within seven days of receiving and accepting instruction, endeavour to schedule an appointment date for a Medico-Legal examination and confirm this, or otherwise, to those instructing me within one working day of arranging the appointment.
2. Use my best endeavours to complete and release my report within 21 days of the appointment date: where this is not possible to record the reason on the report.
3. Comply with any Court Order provided to me by the instructing solicitors within the time specified: if I am unable to do so then promptly to notify all concerned.
4. Reply to any Part 35.6 or other questions received about my report within 21 days of receipt: or promptly to notify the questioner if this is not practicable.
5. Refer in my report to, and document, all relevant correspondence, including telephone calls, between law firms or insurers and myself or my Medical-Legal secretary.
6. Advise those instructing me of any actual or potential conflict of interest before arranging an appointment should such a conflict be apparent from the instructions.
7. Decline or terminate instructions where an actual conflict of interest is detected.

I will provide a signed copy of my report within agreed timescales.

I will provide my report by email as a PDF document if requested.

My report will be compliant with current Criminal/Civil Procedure Rules (as appropriate).

I will be compliant Data Protection Act requirements.
