

ANDREW MUNRO BSc Hons CEng MICE MCIHT

EXPERIENCE

Munro Consulting – Principal Consultant

Formed Munro Consulting in December 2010 to offer value adding, contracts, procurement, and expert witness services to the highways and construction industry.

2011 to present

A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon Development Consent Order. Liaison with Highways England on behalf of Cambridgeshire County Council. Negotiating legal agreements. Leading submission of representations by Cambridgeshire County Council to Examination process, and representing Cambridgeshire County Council at public hearings. 2014 to 2015

Expert Witness in Welcomes and Uplands Road Residents Association v Arnold Tarmac on behalf of the claimant. Failure of surface dressing applied to 1.8 km of road. Settled out of court in claimant's favour. 2013 to 2015

Expert Report in relation to an accident on the M20 motorway caused by defective surfacing. Ongoing.

Providing dispute resolution services to Atkins Consultants and Cambridgeshire County Council in relation to contractual disputes on a major project (£116m). 2011 to 2014

Briefing papers for Counsel and provision of factual response for Reply to Defence and Counterclaim - Cambridgeshire County Council vs BAM Nuttall. 2012 to 2014

Witness of Fact in Cambridgeshire County Council vs BAM Nuttall. 2012 to 2014

Provision of Expert Opinion in relation to design of Luton Dunstable Busway. Ongoing

Developing and delivering national training course for ICE Training on highway design and detailing, inc surfacing. I deliver 3 to 4 courses per annum.

Head of Technology - Highways, Atkins Highways and Transportation

Atkins is a leading international global infrastructure consultancy, with offices around the world. Highways and Transportation is a strategic business unit with a UK blue chip private and public sector client base.

2007 to 2010

Member of the Technology Board, responsibilities included leading technical excellence across the UK developing knowledge management processes and applying lean processes to highways design. Developing innovation capture and deployment. Chair of the Highways Working Group.

Expert Witness in Arbitration relating to design of concrete access road.

Technical Director, Atkins Highways and Transportation

2005 to 2010

Project Director on large highway projects including A14 Ellington to Fen Ditton, A47 Thorney Bypass, A142 Fordham Bypass, and Cambridgeshire Guided Busway. Departments Representative on A1(M) DBFO administering PFI Contract.

Preparation and deposition of Witness Statements for 3 adjudications under NEC Contract.

Dispute resolution on 3 major projects, and negotiating final account.

Expert witness in Arbitration relating to contract performance and delivery of obligations in respect of construction of an access.

Review of Engineering Witness statements for A14 Ellington to Fen Ditton Public Inquiry.

Divisional Director, Atkins Highways and Transportation, East Anglia

2003 to 2005

Managing 90 strong Transport Engineering division in East Anglia. Member of the management board. Project Director Cambridgeshire Guided Busway, A47 Thorney Bypass, A14 Ellington to Fen Ditton. Lead engineering witness at A47 Thorney Bypass Public Inquiry.

Engineering witness at A47 Thorney Bypass Public Inquiry.

Chief Engineer, Atkins Highways and Transportation, Cambridge

2001 to 2003

Project Manager for A1 Tempsford Junction Improvements. Project Director A47 Thorney Bypass, A142 Fordham Bypass, A1198 Papworth Bypass. Managing highway design and maintenance division in Cambridge. Bid manager for large design and build projects.

EARLIER ROLES

1996 – 2001	Senior Project Manager, Atkins Highways and Transportation, Cambridge
1989 – 1995	Project Manager, Atkins Highways and Transportation, Cambridge
1987 – 1989	Assistant Resident Engineer, Essex County Council, A120 Braintree Bypass
1984 – 1987	Assistant Engineer, Essex County Council, Chelmsford
1978 – 1980	Technician, Eastern Road Construction Unit, Witham

EDUCATION & QUALIFICATIONS

Chartered Engineer, 1988
Member of the Institution of Civil Engineers
Member of the Chartered Institution of Highways and Transportation

BSc (Hons 1st Class), Civil Engineering University of Portsmouth, 1984

Advanced Professional Award in Expert Witness Evidence – Legal Experience Training, NVQ Level 7, 2015

Other Training Courses attended: Consulting Skills ... Management of Projects ... Influencing Skills ... Mentoring and Coaching for Performance ... Atkins Management Development Centre ... EFQM Assessor Training
