I am working at Leeds General Infirmary in UK since 2011 Nov as a Consultant Trauma & Orthopaedic Surgeon which is a Major Trauma Centre for adult and paediatrics.

My special interests include reconstructive surgery for complex elbow, shoulder and upper limb trauma, management of complex paediatric trauma, poly trauma, general orthopedics and fractures and major trauma patients

I am included in the division of Orthopaedic surgery of the Register of Medical Specialists maintained by the Medical Council in Ireland since 2005 having passed the FRCS (Tr & Orth).

I am on the specialist register in the UK and have a license to practice.

I have experience of prior working as a Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon in Ireland for more than 5 years (2007 -Nov 2011) doing complex upper and lower limb trauma, polytrauma and general orthopedics.

I did a fellowship in paediatric orthopaedics and limb reconstruction from Sheffield Children's Hospital in 2006.

I have extensive breadth and extent of experience through various subspecialties of Orthopaedics having completed my orthopaedic training in UK, Eire, and India.

I did a six-year comprehensive structured training programme including M.S (Orth) followed by three years of senior residency (lecturer) in teaching university hospital in New Delhi, India.

I am also an ATLS instructor.

Medicolegal Experience.

I am able to provide expert reports the areas of polytrauma, multiply injured complex patients, general trauma, specialist interest in upper limb trauma and pediatric trauma and conditions, hip fractures along with areas of clinical negligence in the above areas and work-related disorders.
