I have performed over 3,000 major ear operations, where my main interest is in stapedectomy, usually performed under local anaesthetic (530 cases), and have received referrals from a large catchment area, well beyond my own department.

Since retiring from the NHS I work full time in private practice, dividing my time between medico-legal work and clinical practice.

I regularly lecture locally, and have also lectured nationally, and internationally on a variety of topics.

I am principal examiner and medical lecturer for nurses on the national ear-care course based in Rotherham. I continue to examine medical students (finals and 2nd MB), and interview potential students at Sheffield University for entry into medical school. I was an Assessor for the Royal College of Surgeons of England, representing their interests on Advisory Appointment Committees (for Consultant Surgeon appointments) (2005-2015).

Fellow of the Royal Society of Medicine
Member of the European Academy of Facial Plastic Surgery
Member of the British Association of Otolaryngologists and Head and Neck Surgeons
Member of North of England ENT Society (former Council Member)
Member of the Politzer Society

Medico-Legal Work :

I have carried out medico-legal work for 30 years. I have seen over 10,000 patients. Many relate to claims for industrial deafness, although I also carry out other cases related to personal injury within the realms of my expertise (rhinoplasty, otology, general adult and paediatric ENT). For industrial deafness cases, approximately 90-95% of the work is on behalf of the Plaintiff and approximately 5% on behalf of the Defendant, with occasional cases as SJE work, issuing reports as a joint expert for both parties. I attend court on 6 occasions per year.

For non-noise deafness cases I deal with clinical negligence/personal injury claims for both defendant and claimant in approximately a 50/50 ratio.
