

Curriculum Vitae

Mr Perez qualified from Guys Hospital Medical School in 1987. He underwent basic surgical training obtaining Fellowship of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh in 1993.

He completed formal orthopaedic training in the UK being awarded the Inter-collegiate Specialist Exam in Orthopaedic and Trauma Surgery in 1999.

He undertook fellowships in Hand, Wrist, Elbow and Shoulder Surgery in 2000 and 2001 at world recognised centres of excellence in Sydney, Australia.

He returned to London to be appointed Consultant at Northwest London Hospitals Trust in 2002 where he is currently the lead clinician for Hand and Elbow Surgery.

Clinical practice since that time has been exclusively as an Upper Limb Surgeon. In 30 years of surgical practice he has undertaken over 10,000 operative interventions. He regularly receives referrals to assess and treat Professional and Olympic athletes.

He continues to treat complex Upper Limb Trauma on the NHS and receives referrals from colleagues in surrounding hospitals.

Mr Perez has written over 3,000 medico legal reports over the past 10 years. He has undergone formal training in this discipline with Professional Solutions and Services Ltd:

- 2002: Medico-Legal Report Writing
- 2002: Giving Expert Evidence in Court

He is a member of the following societies:

- British Society for Surgery of The Hand
- British Elbow & Shoulder Society
- British Orthopaedic Association
- British Medical Association
- Association of Personal Injury Lawyers
- General Medical Council Registration (3200683)