Appointed July 1999. Resigned May 2025

I remain on the NHS Performers' list.

University Education

Oxford University 1981-1984.

Edinburgh University 1984-87.

General Practice Training

GP Registrar 1996-1998, Glasgow and Linlithgow, West Lothian.

Junior hospital posts in Obstetrics & Gynaecology 1995-96, and Accident & Emergency 1996. (Glasgow and Lanarkshire)

Gained Certificate of Equivalent Experience February 1998.

Other Hospital Training

Full GMC registration 1988.

General Medical training posts 1988-90 in Gwent, Edinburgh and Lanarkshire. Haematology training posts 1990-95, Edinburgh and Glasgow.

Other professional interests

I have carried out several hundred assessments on claimants for Disability Living Allowance and Attendance Allowance, and a similar number for Incapacity Benefit for the Benefits Agency (as was).

Medicolegal Experience

I prepared personal injury reports for the assistance of the Civil Courts between 1998 and 2014 and in that time I have prepared approximately 3000 such reports.

The majority of these reports were on claimants who had suffered injuries in low velocity traffic accidents.

I have attended courses on

- Bond Solon Civil Procedure rules for Expert Witness Certificate June 2011
- Advanced training – "Writing Expert Reports in Clinical Negligence Cases" – Specialist Info June 2015.
- "Advanced Medicolegal Course" – Specialist Info – December 2017
- Attended Medicolegal Conference – Specialist Info – June 2019.
- Specialist Info – Advanced Medicolegal expert reaccreditation course – 13 January 2026

I have delivered webinars to General Practice colleagues on the basics of medicolegal law, and pitfalls that clinicians can fall into.

I lectured at "Best Practice" conference – Birmingham October 2023 on a similar topic.

I have delivered a lecture at the invitation of a Barristers' Chambers on "Cancer diagnosis - the General Practitioners' perspective" November 2022, and at the invitation of a large firm of solicitors in September 2024.

I presented at the 2025 conference of Action against Medical Accidents.

My seniority and experience empower me to be a credible expert witness in Clinical Negligence cases that are relevant to General Practice.

I started supplying these reports in 2014.

In the last twelve months I have provided nineteen Court compliant reports and a further forty-eight screening reports.

I have been involved in the ongoing management of some forty further cases in the last year that started previously, including attendances at case conferences and meetings with experts.

I have given an opinion on around one hundred allegations of poor professional conduct for the General Medical Council.

I have attended five meetings with experts instructed by the other party and prepared a statement on four occasions.

My Claimant:Defendant ratio of preparing reports is 45:55.

I have attended six conferences with an expert engaged by the other side in the litigation process to prepare a joint report.

I have attended Court to give evidence on one occasion in a litigation case and given evidence at a Coroner's court on one occasion.

Current activity

I retired from clinical practice in May 2025. I will engage in the appraisal and revalidation system of the GMC by continuing my medical and medicolegal education.
