Curriculum Vitae 2024

Professional Summary

I have been a Consultant Urological Surgeon at East Sussex Hospitals NHS Trust since 2008, appointed as the lead urologist for female, neurological and reconstructive urology. The majority of my time is spent delivering a subspecialist service, which covers female and male continence surgery, neurourology, genito-urethral reconstructive surgery, as well as restoration of the urinary tract after cancer surgery or iatrogenic surgical injury. I also provide elective and emergency general urological care, taking part in the on call rota in a busy district general hospital. I am a national trainer in autologous sling surgery.

Specialist Areas of Expertise

- Urogynaecology & female urology
- Vaginal mesh complications - TVT / TOT
- Iatrogenic ureteric and bladder injuries - obstetric, gynaecological, colorectal
- Vesicovaginal fistulae
- Neurourology - Spinal cord injury / Cauda Equina Syndrome / Brain injury
- Voiding dysfunction, bladder overdistension injury
- Genitourinary trauma
- Male and female pelvic fracture - urethral injury, erectile dysfunction, incontinence
- Urethral stricture disease, urethroplasty
- Complex male urinary symptoms, artificial sphincter surgery
- Urodynamics and videourodynamics

Professional Employment

2008 – present: Consultant Urological Surgeon, East Sussex Hospitals NHS Trust.

Medico-Legal

I have a high volume medicolegal practice, established in 2012, acting on instructions from leading claimant solicitors (individual and group litigation), defence solicitors, The MPS, and the NHS. I have experience of giving evidence as an expert witness in court, the coroners court and I am a member of the GMC Fitness to Practice panel.

I have full Cardiff University / Bond Solon Expert Witness Accreditation. I have lectured widely on medicolegal aspects of urology and have been a faculty member on medicolegal training courses for both medical and legal professionals. I will complete my LLM in Medical Law and Ethics in 2023.

Since 2020, I have been instructed through the following solicitors and agencies:
