I am a practicing Consultant Podiatric Surgeon with 20 years' experience working within the NHS and have been in my Consultant Post for 9 years.

Having graduated from the University of Ulster in BSc Podiatry, I developed my podiatric skills in general practice working in biomechanics, nail surgery and diabetic foot clinics prior to moving into podiatric surgery. I completed my Podiatric Surgery training at the UK's leading podiatric surgery center in 2014 and was soon after, appointed Consultant Podiatric Surgeon. I am the Podiatric Surgery Lead at one of the UK's most progressive podiatric surgery departments and am a registered surgical tutor for the Faculty of Podiatric Surgery.

My clinical workload consists entirely of conservative and surgical management of foot and ankle pathology and I have performed in excess of 4,000 surgical procedures. I am an integral member of the diabetic foot limb salvage team.

Alongside my clinical work, I have lectured extensively across the U.K and Ireland in a broad range of topics pertinent to podiatric surgery and hold honorary academic positions at Ulster University and Huddersfield University. I am a surgical examiner for Huddersfield University and the Faculty of Podiatric Surgery.

I am a Registrant Assessor in relation to 'fitness to practice' for the Health Professions Care Council and provide reports as such.
